

International School on Rewriting (ISR)

— Bylaws —

1. The aim is to have International School on Rewriting (ISR) at least every second year. Moreover, the aim is to achieve geographic diversity.
2. ISR has a steering committee (SC) of six members. The SC elects its own chair.
3. The SC calls for proposals for the organizing chair (OC), the location, and the dates of the ISR to take place two years later. These proposals have to be sent to the SC four weeks before the annual meeting of the WG.
4. The proposals are presented at the annual meeting of the WG. The WG members decide on the OC, the location, and the approximate dates of the ISR which is to take place two years later.
5. The OC becomes a member of the SC replacing a former member if otherwise the SC would have seven members.
6. If a member has to be replaced, then a member with maximum serving time is chosen.
7. The OC decides on the topics and lecturers of ISR in consultation with the SC.
8. The OC is responsible for the local arrangements of the school including publicity and carries the sole financial responsibility.
9. Upon request of the WG chair, the OC reports to the WG at its meeting.
10. Any modification of the bylaws should be proposed to the SC four weeks before the annual meeting of the WG and ratified at the meeting.
